NOGALES, ARIZONA.
From J. R. Southworth's "Sonora Illustrado."

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Editor Allen T. Bird went to Phoenix during the week.

Capt. L. W. Mix paid Hermosillo a business visit Tuesday.

Dr. W. F. Chenoweth visited Hermosillo this week on business.

Collector H. K. Chenoweth was in Tucson the first of the week.

The Larks entertained Capt. T. C. Cox and bride at dinner Sunday evening.

The Vasquez cottage is almost completed and a nobby little dwelling it is too.

Dr. W. F. Chenoweth has fitted up his office in fine style and will soon have elegant new furniture.

The New York Store has just received a fine lot of trunks, also some handsome goods for ladies dresses, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Roberts of San Pedro were visiting their daughter Mrs. S. M. Aguirre this week.

Professor Lewis and Miss Hallie Sprecher went to Tucson this week to take the teachers' examination.

The new scenery for Geo. B. Marsh's new opera house is on the way and is expected to arrive here in a few days.

A Bachelor is constructing a neat cottage on the hill above the water works on the opposite side of the street.

Theodore Gobler is doing a rushing business, his numerous orders keeping all of his employees as busy as beavers.

Jim Gamble, a nephew of J. D. Milton, arrived last Saturday and went on a prospecting trip to Sonora Tuesday with Milton and Webb.

The Athletic club is having a fine drop curtain painted for the new stage. It is being done by Robt. Conklin, the paper hanger and painter.

FOR SALE.—Mrs. Ellen Reilly's ranch and hotel at Huachuca. Fine business opportunity. Profits $200 per month. Address or apply at THE VIDETTE office, Nogales, Arizona. 3t Chenoweth & Mix have a fine assortment of Terra cotta figures in transit and are expected to arrive in a few days. They are all extremely artistic and are at present all the rage in New York.

Why go across the line and pay high prices for cheap perfumes, when for low prices you can buy good perfumes at Chenoweth & Mix. Just received a new lot of perfumery for Christmas presents.

Nogales is booming all the time and showing steady development, she can justly claim the distinction of being the busiest town of her size in the United States and her merchants the most prosperous.

Jos. Thompson and his wife and baby came up from La Colorada Monday and will likely remain here permanently. Mr. Thompson is a first class mechanic and can get more work in Nogales now than he can attend to.

Hon. Sam F. Webb, J. D. Milton and Jim Gamble left Tuesday night for a hunting and prospecting trip to Sonora. Mr. Milton wanted to take a layoff for a short time and concluded to put the time in looking for the yellow metal.

Professor R. T. Dumble left for San Francisco last Saturday evening and will return Friday. During the last drillings three stratas of coal were passed through. The last drilling opened up a fine strata of coal, a sample of which he took with him.

Messrs. J. A. Straith & Co. always enterprising and up-to-date, have now established a mining bureau, for the employment of skilled mining mechanics, mill men and etc. All mining operators needing any help can by applying to Straith & Co. have their wants supplied satisfactorily. Correspondence is solicited and will receive prompt attention.

(Billy) C. F. Emerson, formerly end man, with Haverley's Minstrels, but now representing the Pacific Crockery and Tinware Co. of Los Angeles, was in Nogales Monday after a successful trip through Sonora in the interest of his firm. Billy is a taking sort of a "cuss" and sells goods at a lively rate wherever he goes. He is representing a first class firm too and their goods are all right.

Mrs. J. R. Southworth entertained a few of her friends at a dinner Tuesday evening at the Montezuma hotel. The event being her birthday. The meal was served in courses and was one of those spreads that the Montezuma is noted for with Chef Dan Pitzel in the rear. Pitzel is a noted California chef whose dinners are first class in every respect and the one Tuesday evening was no exception to the rule. The present to Mrs. Southworth from her husband was a handsome diamond and pearl bracelet. THE VIDETTE wishes the lady many more such happy birthdays.
